

Baptist Church on the last Thursday or Friday^{evening} of each month. We have dinner together and then an evening of entertainment such as speakers, pictures, and games.

This year it is my job to look after the programs for the group.

The way I look at this invitation is this, "Nothing ventured, nothing won".

I would feel proud to be able to introduce such a man to our group and know you would find an attentive audience.

I would appreciate hearing from you and if you can't be with us, my wish is, "More power to Old K.U." Maybe I can see the games
