

January 11, 1938.

Mr. Maurice L. Breidenthal,
Security National Bank,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Maurice:

I was happy to receive your good letter, and had I known that you and Mrs. Breidenthal were in the audience I would certainly have looked you up, even though I was feeling pretty low after our boys tossed away the ball game after we had it right in our laps.

I say that we really threw it away. I sent both Corlis and Florell in there to play a special triangle play, which is keep-away. Instead of them huddling and telling the boys what to do they didn't say a word, and the worst part about it was that the very two boys I sent in there were the two boys that threw the ball game away.

All of which reminds us that the boys seeking a college education do not get it in a day, or a week, or a month, or a year.

Remember the next time you come to Lawrence let me know. I certainly want to shake your paw and tell you a lot of funny stories.

With best wishes to the Breidenthals, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH