

February 3, 1938.

Mr. Maurice L. Breidenthal,
Security National Bank,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Maurice:

Mr. Falkenstien showed me your letter, and I was of course disappointed that you couldn't come down to the game last night. But you showed wisdom in staying in, because this is wonderful pneumonia weather.

I am glad you have reached the age of maturity where you can view philosophically the importance of keeping your health. Kansas needs more men like you - and that is not applesauce.

My promise to eat luncheon with you is still good - either in Kansas City or Lawrence.

With best regards to you and your family, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH