Mr. Robin McGeorge,
Hotel Continental,
Kansas City, Missouri.

Dear Robin:

We have arranged with the Kansas City Convention and Visitors Bureau to handle the registration, membership fee, badges, and ticket sale for the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the National Basketball Rules Committee. The officers of these associations are supposed to make these arrangements, but since they haven't done so, I am doing a lot of these things myself.

The Coaches Association will probably want a sight-seeing tour, and I believe we can get enough volunteer cars to take them over the city.

Registration will open at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, March 28.

The Coaches Association banquet will be the evening of the 29th, and there ought to be 150 to 200 members present. Mr. Rex Darity will be the principal speaker, and I am trying to get Jimmy Conzelman to play the piano and put on some of his specialty stunts.

We have notified the teams competing in the tournament that the Continental will be their headquarters. "Frosty" Cox and his University of Colorado team will be coming in about the 19th. All of the teams will doubtless want twin beds. The N.C.A.A., of course, will pay the bills.

If there is any further information that you need to know I will be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:II Manager, N.C.A.A. Basketball Tournament.
