My dear Clev:

The fifty reserved seat tickets are going out this morning by Air Mail, Special Delivery.

I was out of town yesterday afternoon, and when your wire came to the office, it was referred to Mr. Falkenstien, Financial Secretary of the Athletic Association, who immediately pulled fifty tickets from the best section we had left.

These tickets are in the curve past the goal. I am sorry that we did not have something on the sides for you, but tickets for the finals were on sale in Kansas City last week-end and many of the Kansas City people bought tickets Friday and Saturday.

Our people did not have much of an idea that we would be in the finals, and consequently we did not make any arrangement for tickets to be sold here until after the game Saturday night. By that time the very best tickets that we could get were even with the goal, and all of our customers have had to take tickets in the end zones.

I, personally, never thought that we would be able to work our way up to the finals, but the boys came through in the tough spots.

Looking forward to seeing you this week-end, and with very best wishes, I am Very sincerely yours,

Director of Phys. Education
Basketball Coach
