Dear Phog:

If I were you I would drop the Adams matter. There is no question about the statement which he made to me. There is just a bare possibility that it might have been someone other than Dean Adams, i.e. I might have thought that I was talking to Dean Adams when it was some one else. I feel positive, however, that it was the fellow who was introduced to me as Dean Adams. There is no question about the school because he mentioned Fayette.

I enjoyed being at the little party for you the other night. I think it was a very fine tribute to your many years of service to the University.

Sincerely

Maurice L. Breidenthal
President
