

F.C.A. #2

November 26, 1938

"June" Salmon, W. S. Chandler, Dr. Forrest C. Allen and myself. I figure that we can get a better administration of the tournament plans with a general, or executive committee, of this size rather than with a larger committee. The general scheme would be that each selection committee would be charged with the selection of the best N.C.A.A. team in that district, but that all the selection committees will be working under the direction and subject to the supervision of our general committee. Does that strike you as proper organization?

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

H. G.
