RATES	Standard	Tourist	Chair Car
New Orleans to Los Angeles and return:	$89.25	$73.30	$64.40
Lower berth round trip	$29.40	$14.70

Travel Groups: It has been suggested that the pleasure of the cross country journey might be greatly enhanced if groups of delegates should travel together. It is also possible that groups may be able to secure better rates than those quoted above. To facilitate the organization of such groups, President Owens has requested the following, who are located at several important points of departure, to take charge of arrangements for group travel. Write to them, if you want to join a group.

New York City: Professor P. O. Badger, New York University; Chicago: Major J. L. Griffith, Hotel Sherman; New Orleans: Dr. W. C. Smith, Tulane University; Seattle: Professor C. C. May, University of Washington.

Program and Special Attractions: Announcements regarding program and arrangements for various entertainment features will be made later in the N. C. A. A. Bulletin.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

The Executive Committee submits for consideration, and proposes for adoption, at the Convention in Los Angeles, December 29th and 30th, 1939, the following revision of the Constitution of the Association, with the following brief comments.

I. In large part the revision merely involves a rearrangement of the provisions of the present Constitution and By-laws:—(1) to bring together in one place provisions relating to the same subject, now found in different parts of the Constitution and By-laws; (2) to eliminate some overlapping and some apparent repetition and possible conflict; (3) to incorporate in the Constitution existing administrative practices which are not, at all points, in conformity with the specific provisions of the Constitution; (4) to clarify the language in some parts.

II. In addition to the above objectives, which involve only matters of rearrangement without essential substantive change, the pro-
