

He shall have charge of all funds of the Association, and shall submit at the annual convention a detailed report of all receipts and disbursements, during the preceding fiscal year ending November thirtieth, which, after being audited, shall be printed in the annual Proceedings. This report shall be in such form as to facilitate a comparison of the items of income and expenditure in connection with the various activities of the Association during the fiscal year just concluded, with the corresponding items for the preceding year.

He shall present a proposed operating budget for the ensuing year at the business session of the Annual Convention for the information of the members and for purposes of general discussion. The Executive Committee shall adopt a budget for the then current fiscal year at its first meeting after the close of the business session of the Convention.

(Incorporates Article I of the By-laws [page 126]. Subdivision (b) is new but merely enacts the existing practice. Subdivision (c) Duties of Officers: incorporates Article II of the By-laws [page 126] with amendments suggested by the Executive Committee to clarify the statement of duties. In subdivision (2) the statement of duties of the Vice-Presidents is revised to fit existing practice, omitting some provisions which in practice have not been observed because not feasible. Note particularly subdivision (3) relating to the Secretary-Treasurer, which incorporates new provisions relating to the budget.)
