

California Aggies
 California, University of
 Catholic University, Washington, D. C.
 Florida, University of Idaho, University of
 Louisiana State University
 Loyola University, New Orleans
 Miami, University of Michigan State College
 Mississippi State College
 Pennsylvania State College
 San José State College
 Southwestern Louisiana Institute
 Superior State Teachers College
 Temple University
 Virginia, University of
 State College of Washington
 Wisconsin, University of

The University of Idaho was given the mythical championship due to the fact that they won three individual titles.

The N. C. A. A. Boxing Rules Committee met from April 2 through April 6th discussing clarification of the rules and minor rule changes.

Champions

120 lb. division—Ted Kara—University of Idaho
 127 lb. division—Sewele Whitney—Loyola University of the South
 135 lb. division—John Joca—University of Florida
 145 lb. division—Snyder Parham—Louisiana State University
 155 lb. division—Woodrow Swancutt—University of Wisconsin
 165 lb. division—Laune Erickson—University of Idaho
 175 lb. division—John Webster—University of Idaho
 Heavyweight—Nick Lee—University of Wisconsin

Second Place Winners

120 lb. division—Bill Sellers—San José State Teachers College
 127 lb. division—Joseph Church—University of Miami
 135 lb. division—Les Coffman—Washington State College
 145 lb. division—Clarence Esterl—Superior State Teachers College
 155 lb. division—Truman Southall—University of Virginia
 165 lb. division—Gerald Strang—Catholic University, Washington, D. C.
 175 lb. division—Kenneth Rathbun—University of Virginia
 Heavyweight—Herbert Kendrick—Louisiana State University

Third Place Winners

120 lb. division—Merle Vannoy—Washington State College
 127 lb. division—H. H. Graham—University of Florida
 135 lb. division—Sam Zingale—University of Idaho
 145 lb. division—Omar Crocker—University of Wisconsin
 155 lb. division—Bill Bolich—San José State Teachers College
 165 lb. division—Stan Dillatush—Washington State College
 175 lb. division—Pete Bolich—San José State Teachers College
 Heavyweight—Henry Zajkowski—Temple University