

had their annual meeting, the interscholastic coaches had theirs, and the sub-committee on Diving also met. The 97 men who attended the Yale Athletic Association luncheon on Saturday noon is an indication of the importance of this meet as a rallying point for the coaches and swimming administrators.

Although the income from the meet did not reach expected proportions, nevertheless the approximate gross of $3,139.00 will probably result in a better net gate when expenses are deducted than in any previous meet.

$312.00	from entry fees
2,547.30	from ticket sales
153.73	from program sales
126.00	from advertising in programs

$3,139.03	—Total

In spite of the disappointment following the cancellation of the Olympic Games, our swimming program goes forward steadily and this year's championships indicate that the sport is in a growing and healthy condition.
