

IV. In discussing the final distribution of the funds of the 1932-1933 season, now held by the Treasurer, Mr. Metzdorf, and on which the Executive Committee of the old Joint Basketball Committee had taken action, Chairman St. John pointed out that after conferring with Mr. Metzdorf, it was deemed necessary to maintain a balance in order to carry on the work of the new Committee, since new funds would not be forthcoming for some time. The matter was generally discussed from the floor and the following MOTION made, seconded and passed:

That the treasurer make a three-way division of the funds in the treasury of the old organization; that $700 be distributed at once to the three organizations, the balance to be held by the treasurer of the National Basketball Committee until such time as new funds are available, when this balance is to be distributed pro rata to the N.C.A.A., the Y.M.C.A., and the A.A.U.
Carried.

V. With reference to the financial distribution - after payment of all current expenses of the Rules Committee, the balance of receipts, after a suitable reserve has been established, shall be divided as follows:

- 50% to the National Collegiate Athletic Association
- 25% to the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations
- 10% to the Young Men's Christian Association
- 10% to the Amateur Athletic Union
- 5% to the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union

VI. Mr. Tower requested that all new members on the Committee send in their photographs for inclusion in the guide this season.

VII. Several suggestions were offered regarding the name of the new Committee. The group finally indicated as its choice the - National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada.

VIII. ON MOTION - which was seconded and passed - it was voted to extend the privilege of translating the rules into Spanish and any other language. It is understood, however, that this statement shall appear on such copy - Translated and Printed by permission of the National Basketball Committee of the United States and Canada.

IX. On suggestion of Chairman St. John - Mr. H. H. Salmon, Jr., took charge of the session dealing with revisions and modifications of the rules. Mr. Salmon, as chairman of the Rules Co-Ordination Committee, reported on his Committee's recommendations for changes in the rules, and ON MOTION, the following rules revisions or modifications or editorial action, as indicated, were accepted.
