Dear Dr. Allen:

When I wrote you a few days ago, I forgot to answer your question with reference to the recognition badges for our convention. I do not believe that this has been a duty of the chairman of the Convention Committee in past years. I know that when I was secretary and treasurer, I looked after the matter and I believe the last two years it has been taken care of by the chairman of the Membership Committee. I will write to Blair Gullion, chairman of this committee, at once and bring this matter to his attention.

I hope everything is shaping up fine on your end for the convention. I just now have my program completed and hope that it will prove of value as well as interesting and entertaining. I am figuring on your discussing "The Zone Defense," and its many ramifications during one of our sessions. I know you can do this better than any one I can think of, and I am certain that every one will appreciate it very much.

Hastily yours,

B. T. Grover, President
