Dear Doctor Allen:

Would you please, at your earliest convenience, submit to me a program that you would like to see put on at our annual convention in Kansas City March 28-30. I am requesting this from a number of past presidents who have had difficulty in arranging a satisfactory program and hope from the group to make a compilation of good things that will make our program outstanding this coming year. Would you please let me have this at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

B. T. Grover, President
N. A. B. C.
