Mr. E.A. Thomas of Topeka was elected president of the new Missouri Valley Athletic Officials! association, and Gene Kemper, also of Topeka, was chosen secretary-treasurer. These members form the executive committee:

Ted O'Sullivan of Kansas City, representing Missouri.
William Day of Lincoln, representing Nebraska.
Harry HasBrouck of Des Moines, representing Towa.
Richard Pendleton of Norman, representing Oklahoma.

Organization of the association was the result of a resolution passed last spring by the Big Six conference, making it mandatory for Officials to attend rules interpretation meetings. Conformity in interpretation of the rules of football and basketball between officials and schools are the aims.

. Obio attempting to secure games for this tiret dollege team.

overself the litte of elle asw andot enth this increse tersest

end partyuld amend edelastico rendo on etem, etende tevenou

The baskastas was doffer mest listensed ed!

Bill Chandler, basketball coach at Marquette, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, does not seem to be particularly happy these days, for he writes us to take a look at his court schedule, and then requests that aspirins be sent him.

A basketball clinic was held at Wesleyan College, Middletown, Connecticut on November 15.

Next Convention: Chicago, Ill., Monday and Tuesday, April 4 and 5, 1938.

000000

est at bled eas auteaness negrot to nothesthes tested ent. '''

-mad of artica asm annot take outs eman outs duode feel to fist

western besting

From the time the game originated, Mount Union was always represented on the basketball court by a strong team. They have won more than their share of Ohio Conference titles, and are today personial tavorites in the conference race, tems dreamed to the temporal entranger of the most been their

Springfield, Mass., leat June for him athletic clinic at the Springfield, Mass., leat June for him cohool coaches. The court game was one of the important toples of discussion with college and showing the

The same was also and the same with the same was rations phases of the game, Springfield College bandetball enditaring the situations to device by the cocooca and explaint the cocooca.