

Voting & comments Contd.

"X. Would the discontinuation of 'four fouls and out' improve conditions?

Total Answering 141
Yes 73
No 68

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Yes, if disqualifying rule were enforced rigidly, and if player could re-enter next quarter after being removed on four fouls2. Suggest three each half. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Increase to five, make sure last one is a good foul.2. Would make game more rough3. Suggest removal of player who makes three fouls in either half for remaining time in that period. Disqualification of player at beginning of second half due mainly to fouls committed in first half is too severe.4. Why not try it? |
|--|---|

"XI. Would an appeal on the part of responsible athletic heads at the start of the game help?

Total Answering 141
Yes 94
No 47

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. It depends on respect held for person making announcement.2. A sportsmanship program on the campus with better men men taking the lead.3. Yes, when necessary. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Too embarrassing.2. Such action calls attention to evil and tends to stimulate it.3. Appeal should be demanded at start of season.4. No, not before games but at all times.5. Weak means of doing it.6. In most cases, athletic head and coach are one and same person and why increase his pre-game duties? |
|---|--|

"XII. Should officials remain at the scoring board table between halves?

Total Answering 142
Yes 14
No 128

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. In field houses2. Stay away from coaches. | <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Shouldn't talk with the coaches or players.2. Would subject them to ridicule and embarrassment. |
|---|---|

"XIII. Would our situation be improved if officials were given an opportunity to rate the coaches, crowds, and players regarding their attitude toward the game and the officiating?

Total Answering 123
Yes 78
No 45