

February 3, 1938.

Mr. Adrian J. Brennan,
The Aetna Casualty and Surety Co.,
Hartford, Conn.

Dear Mr. Brennan:

Thank you very much for your good letter of the 11th ultimo. You have paid me a very high compliment, and I appreciate it very much. I took your letter home and read it to my good family, which now consists of Mrs. Allen, Robert Earl, my youngest son, and Eleanor, my youngest daughter. Jane, my middle daughter, is at Stanford, having graduated from here, and Mary, my eldest daughter, is in Louisville, Kentucky, with her husband and three children. Milton is married and lives at Russell, Kansas. He is with the Stanolind Oil Company, which is a subsidiary of the Standard.

Last week Milton's home was blessed by the addition of a young daughter, and they are very happy about it. For pastime he is playing on a team out there, but his chiefest interest is with the Stanolind Company. I expect to write Milton in a very short while, and I will tell him the fine things that you had to say about him. You know, those incidents always ripen into beautiful reflections, and I assure you that we have had many very happy conversations over the little misunderstanding. It was fine of you to write as you did and I want you to know that I appreciate it.

I trust that you have not lost more than that one game. We have lost two out of 14, but of course our competition has not been too tough, so all in all we have had a very good season.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH