

September 17, 1927.

Mr. A. A. Schabinger,
Director of Athletics,
Creighton University,
Omaha, Nebraska

My Dear "Shabby":

Along about the first of September I received a letter from C. M. "Nibbs" Price, University of California, saying that he had not heard from you regarding his appointment on the Membership Committee of the Basketball Coaches Association. Is this correct?

"Shabby", I got some information regarding one of the members on our publicity committee saying that he was a real drunkard, etc. If this is the case I think we had better be sure of our appointment. I had never heard this before. I am wondering if you can guess who it is. They say that this fellow starts a rough house whenever an opportunity arrives. Some one has said that when three fellows get together we will have at least one drunk if this fellow is in the party.

I do not care to write these things but I am wondering if you can guess.

Very cordially yours,

Director.

FCA:LB