

October 12, 1927.

Mr. A. A. Schabinger,
Director of Athletics,
Creighton University,
Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Schabbie:

I got a letter from "Piggy" Lambert today wanting to speak up on the rules, etc. I think it is a good time now for us to plan our offensive and publicity stunt.

I am wondering if you have had the stationery printed or are you still waiting on me to make that appointment? I wrote you but have not heard from you. If you are holding up the appointment, please wire me at my expense, your suggestions and I will act at once. You have the list before you of all appointments and I thought it would be easier for you to nominate five or six good men that you think would make workers.

I had in mind Dean of Indiana but it seems to me he was on another committee. I am writing this letter from home and from fear of making an error, I want you to check over your list and tell me if I am wrong. Have we named George Keogan of Notre Dame an assignment or Bill Boelter of Drake? I think any of these men would be good.

I am a little confused on the Nibs Price appointment. I knew that he was one of the officers but I was of the notion that we were to appoint him on the Membership Committee.