

Mr. Schabinger--page 2

a form letter. What I had in mind was a personal letter with a general form, which would advise them of their appointment by the trustees, concurred in by the president and the secretary-treasurer. Will you kindly do this?

You are a past master on the appeals, so I'll leave it to the good secretary-treasurer to get this across. You write to all of them, Schaby, as secretary, saying that it is our desire that they accept, and ask them to give you their answer in a very short while, setting forth the reasons why you desire a prompt reply.

I appreciate your prompt response to communications and assure you that I will be equally as prompt in promoting the best interests of The Basketball Coaches Association of the United States.

With every good wish, I am

Very cordially yours,
