

BASKET BALL

William for the job and later came back to K.D.

William explained. William called Dr. Allen the "Bloody Baker".

Dr. Allen told him that he thought he could handle the position Dr.

Dr. William said there was a vacancy at Baker University. "When you're in one game. He was told after finding out that he was in 1888

He at the present time makes notes the high scoring record of SE cond. Dr. Allen played here in 1888 and was a great free thrower.

of players on the various sides was determined by the size of the variations of this game. In the early days of basketball the number since basketball was invented there have been 2 games that are