Dear "Doc",

My wife, Betty, wrote me and sent a clipping out of the X.C. Star in regard to the Basketball scandal and your ideas about how to handle same. She also sent the article telling all about the scandal back East. It pleased me so much to know they are finally getting to the bottom of the Madison Square Garden racket that I thought I wanted take time out to write you and to let you know that I for one remember well when you used to preach to us the evils of the Garden & those who run it. For many years now I have carried on the argument with many an Easterner when they asked me why I never played in the Garden. Now I too along with you can say "I told you so".

I have been overseas now for 16 months and it has been
