

January 14, 1943.

Mr. A. M. Kingkade,
Kingkade Hotel,
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Mr. Kingkade:

Last Saturday afternoon we paid $2.40 (plus tax) for 24 bottles of milk - bottles and all. They were left in the refrigerator and in the rush to catch the train the boys failed to pick them up.

Will you kindly mail me check for this amount, as I paid your cashier for same.

Thank you for your usual good service.

Cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH