

January 20, 1943.

Mr. George Nettels,
Midway Coal Mining Company,
Pittsburg, Kansas.

Dear George:

Yes, I got a letter from Curt and I am answering it today along with yours. I am sending a carbon copy of the letter that I wrote him to you, but of course I am sending them to different addresses. I couldn't lie as poker-faced as you did, but I approached the dirty deed somewhat.

I hope he likes the ball and has a lot of fun with it.

Thanks for the addresses of Gillen and Couster. I will drop them a note today.

Yes, Mr. Iba didn't do very well by the Kansas customers. The Chancellor called me and wanted to break off relations right away, not play that game down there on February 17th, but I rather talked him out of it. And frankly, I do not think we will play him next year. We are not afraid of them but they leave a bad taste in the mouths of all the spectators. So we better forget it for a while and let haranguing Hank cool off.

Hope that old sacro-iliac is better.

Sincerely yours,
