AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION
OF THE
NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

At the 1941 convention it will be moved that Article III of the Constitution be revised as follows:

ARTICLE III

*Declaration of Sound Principles and Practices for Intercollegiate Athletics

Intercollegiate athletics should be conducted upon sound principles and with a proper understanding of their relationship to the educational functioning of the college or university, in order to constitute an important and useful adjunct of undergraduate life and training. This association believes that the minimum standards specified in this article are essential to the conduct of intercollegiate athletics upon sound principles.

Section 1. Amateurism. (Unchanged)

Section 2. Control of Athletics. (Unchanged)

Section 3. Institutional Responsibility. (Unchanged)

Section 4. Aid for the Athlete.

- a. In the award of student aid an athlete shall neither be favored nor discriminated against.

Note 1—Athletes should not be placed on a different basis from other students in the award of financial aid. In some quarters there has been a feeling that an athlete deserves, ipso facto, financial aid; in others that no greater proportion of athletes should receive such aid than the pro-

* During the two years since Article III was adopted and published, it has been increasingly evident that some informal explanation of the thinking of the Association which led to its adoption should be made available. It has seemed wise, too, in view of many requests for information, to suggest in some cases procedures which might be set up within institutions to carry out the provisions of this article. Therefore, brief explanatory notes have been added following the various sections. The Executive Committee will be glad to receive and consider comments on these notes, and any other suggestions which members of the Association may desire to make.
