

MENTAL HYGIENE (CONT'D)

Mental health emergency committee.
Mental welfare (London) 20: 104-6, October 1939.

Philbrook, L. F.

Value of the hospital library.
Library journal (New York City) 64: 890-91, November 15, 1939.

Value in a mental hospital.

NURSING

Mary Patricia, Sister.

The general duty nurse in the care of the sick. Hospitals (Chicago) 13: 46-49, November 1939.

NUTRITION

Boyd, French.

Feeding the school child. Health bulletin, North Carolina state board of health (Raleigh) 54: 12-14, November 1939.

Includes a table giving food needs of school child.

Brinkman, Lillian.

Nutrition in public health work.
Pacific coast journal of nursing (San Francisco) 35: 654-55, November 1939.

Duties of state and local nutritionists.

Savage, Sir W. G., M.D.

Canned foods in relation to health.
Lancet (London) 237: 991-95, 996, November 4, 1939.

A defense of canned foods.

See also article by Pollak under Tuberculosis.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

The public health nurse and evacuation. Nursing times (London) 35: 1267-68, October 21, 1939.

SEX EDUCATION

Chase, W. L.

The school's responsibility to the home and the child in sex education. Journal of social hygiene (New York City) 25: 321-29, October 1939.

Goldberg, J. A.

Arousing teacher interest in New York city. Journal of social hygiene (New York City) 25: 340-45, October 1939.

Kaukonen, J. L.

Sex education -- whose responsibility? Health officer, U.S. Public health service (Washington, D.C.) 4: 202-5, October 1939.

Stohlman, M. H.

Sex education in the public schools of the District of Columbia. Journal of social hygiene (New York City) 25: 330-39, October 1939.

SOCIAL HYGIENE

Reynolds, I. B., R.N.

An experiment in premarital education. Pacific coast journal of nursing (San Francisco) 35: 662-63, November 1939.

Course given to young Mexican women in Santa Barbara.

TUBERCULOSIS

Climate and tuberculosis. Health officer, U.S. Public health service (Washington, D.C.) 4: 208-9, October 1939.

Available in leaflet form.

Frost, W. H., M.D.

The age selection of mortality from tuberculosis in successive decades. American journal of hygiene (Baltimore) section A 30: 91-96, November 1939.

Lincoln, E. H. M., M.D. and Grethmann, Wolfgang, M.D.

The potential dangers of tuberculin tests. Journal of pediatrics (St. Louis) 15: 682-96, November 1939.