

TUBERCULOSIS (CONT'D)

McCarthy, C. K., M.D.

Tuberculosis control in Iowa. Journal of the Iowa state medical society (Des Moines) 29: 569-70, November 1939.
Case finding program.

Mikol, E. X., M.D.

Distribution of tuberculosis mortality by place of death. New York state journal of medicine (New York City) 39: 2033-36, November 1, 1939.

Pollak, B. S., M.D.

Tuberculosis and the nurse. Trained nurse and hospital review (New York City) 103: 119-22, 330-33, August, October 1939.

Sartwell, P. E., M.D.

Tuberculosis in children. Journal of school health (Buffalo) 9: 271-72, November 1939.

Sim, R. P., M.D. and Flinn, F. B., Ph.D.

A study of the hazard from tubercle bacilli in environmental air. American journal of hygiene (Baltimore) section B 30: 135-40, November 1939.

Tuberculosis in war time. British medical journal (London) p.922-23, November 4, 1939.

Need for maintaining anti-tuberculosis services in England.

Turner, J. T.

Our fight against tuberculosis. Health bulletin, North Carolina state board of health (Raleigh) 54: 5-6, November 1939.

How a Florida Negro school used a Christmas Post office to sell Christmas seals.

Wolff, Georg.

The decline of tuberculosis mortality in specific age groups in the United States and the absence of this decline in young women after the World war. American journal of hygiene (Baltimore) section A 30: 63-77, November 1939.

See also article by Goldblatt under Venereal diseases.

VENEREAL DISEASES

Croft, C. C.

Evaluation of serological tests for syphilis as performed by the Arizona state laboratory. Arizona public health news (Phoenix) p.1-2, no.163, October 1939.

Goldblatt, Samuel, M.D.

Relation between syphilis and tuberculosis in the Negro. Archives of dermatology and syphilology (Chicago) 40: 792-800, November 1939.

Guijarro, C. A., M.D.

Remarks about our venereal disease clinics' statistics. Puerto Rico health bulletin, Department of health (San Juan) 3: 415-18, October 1939.

Quintero, Ernesto, M.D.

News from the venereal diseases campaign. Puerto Rico health bulletin, Department of health (San Juan) 3: 433-34, October 1939.

Rost, G. S., M.D.

Syphilis among Arabs in the Near East; reply to Dr. Hasselmann. Archives of dermatology and syphilology (Chicago) 40: 805, November 1939.