

August 2, 1938.

Mr. Dean Nesmith,
Belleville, Kansas.

Dear Dean:

Mr. Al Green, sponsor of the Green Brothers Ben Johnson baseball team, called me this morning to ask about a trainer for his team. I told him that I thought you would be fine for that work if you could come to Lawrence. He wants to put his boys in good shape for their tournament which is played the latter part of this month. Of course, he wouldn't be able to pay much, but I believe he would make it worth your while.

I told Mr. Green to call up Gwim Henry and ask him what had been the decision about a trainer for the varsity teams this year. I am going to play golf with Gwim at 2:30 this afternoon and I am going to ask him then what arrangements he has made for that job. Unless somebody crowds you out, I think you have a good chance of landing the job.

Mr. Henry, I think, will be here most of the summer, and it seems to me it would be a good idea for you to press your case. Mrs. Henry has had an operation, and they have recently moved over on Massachusetts Street, so I feel sure that Gwim will be around most of the time.

Ole is in the office right now, and he says he thinks it would be a good idea for you to come down this week.

If there is anything I can do for you, please let me know.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
