Dear Phog:

A friend of mine who is teaching at Glen Elder tells me that Darrow Dean, one of their senior high school students, is a very good basket ball player, and suggested that you might be able to entice him down here. I did my best with him, and think he may well come down here, but perhaps you will know some way to make K. U. look attractive. Of course I don't know just how good he is.

Merry Christmas
