

K.U. MATERIAL BY POSITIONS

LEFT END-- One 1936 regular, Dave Shirk, 180, Eldorado. One reserve, Bill Arnold, 180, Garden City. Three sophomores, John Burge, 180, St. Louis; Charles Wenstrand, 170, Leavenworth; Louis Thompson, 185, Oskaloosa. Shirk has recovered from the injuries which kept him out of action much of the time last year and he should again be a star.

RIGHT END-- One reserve, Russell Chitwood, 167, Conway Springs. Three sophomores, Steve Renko, 190, Kansas City, Kan.; Charles Dalrymple, 175, Haven; Vincent Graves, 180, McFarland. Renko and Chitwood are the leading candidates at this position.

LEFT TACKLE-- One regular, Fred Bosilevac, 190, Kansas City, Kan. Two sophomores, Quido Massare, 180, East Monongahela, Pa.; Ralph Schaaake, 195, Williamstown. Bosilevac should make a strong bid for all-Big Six honors. He is big, strong and experienced.

RIGHT TACKLE-- One reserve, Dan Rhule, 185, Aspinwall, Pa. Two sophomores, Monte Merkel, 215, Chicago; Keith Fedde, 180, Jewell. Merkel looks good and Rhule is improved.

LEFT GUARD-- One regular who played in another position last year, Mike Sihlanick, 182, Lawrence. Two reserves, Bill Lenhart, 190, Trenton, Mo.; Paul White, 195, Garden City. Two sophomores, Mike Andrews, 175, Central City, Pa.; Don Jacka, 185, Tonganoxie. Sihlanick is back at his best position. Andrews should be a good relief man.

CENTER-- Two reserves, Wayne Wilson, 185, Omaha, Neb.; John Naramore, 165, Wichita. Two sophomores, Curtice Jenkins, 190, Higginsville, Mo.; Don Pierce, 170, Topeka. Jenkins should fill the bill.

QUARTERBACK-- One regular, Paul Masoner, 180, Kansas City, Mo. One reserve, Kenneth Caldwell, 180, Chanute. Two sophomores, Morris Belshe, 185, Wellington; Waldean Hooper, 175, Smith Center. Masoner should have his best season, with Belshe a fine alternate.

RIGHT HALFBACK-- One regular, Max Replogle, 165, Coldwater. One regular who played in another position last year, Milton Sullivant, 170, Waverly. Two reserves, Dick Amerine, 170, Lawrence; Eldreth Cadwalader, 167, Topeka. Tossup between Replogle and Sullivant, two stars.

FULLBACK-- Two reserves, Milton Meier, 178, Herington; Harlan Lanter, 185, Olathe. Two sophomores, Ed Hall, 180, Sublette; Bill Bunsen, 195, Overland Park. Hall and Bunsen are the most likely candidates.
