

February 12, 1940.

Mr. Ira Farrell,
Traveling Passenger Agent,
Burlington Road,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Ira:

I find that in January, 1934, and February, 1935, there were eleven tickets bought to Lincoln via the Burlington. These tickets were purchased from Mr. Cote.

Therefore, I feel that I should give the Missouri Pacific the haul to Lincoln, Nebraska, and to Ames, Iowa, on February 24th and 26th. And we will give you the haul to Omaha, Nebraska, on March 4th. We may take the streamliner, and again we may go up the night before. We will determine that at a later date.

This policy is in keeping with my explanation to you when you were here. I trust that you will understand it.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
