Dear Lee:

When I was going through my pockets the other day I came across six tickets to the game with Great Lakes in Municipal Auditorium with your name written on them. I had held them out for you, but somehow in the rush of things failed to get them to you.

I just wanted you to know my intentions were good, and I am terribly sorry that I did not get the tickets to you.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
