

any spunk he is going to make a fellow pay from every angle. I would rather meet the devil than a Russian guerilla, and I believe the Germans would also. There are just so many of those cussed guys over there and every one they cut down will be one less for us to worry about.

Mrs. Hulteen and I are sitting up here the morning of July 4th dictating and writing this letter.

You made a fine impression and an excellent record, Johnny, while you were here. Lots of good luck and hope for your unlimited achievements.

Sincerely yours,
