Dear Doc:

Otto is working in Manhattan. I read a letter he wrote to his brother.
He hasn't decided definitely to go there but it looks bad.

He promised Jack Gardiner he could come by. He was on his way to N.Y. if he didn't like Manhattan. They took him to a couple dances and put him to work at 45¢ per hr.

I wrote him a big letter this morning. His address is 1014 Kearney St.
