P. S. Your letter just arrived, and it is swell to know that the article will be forthcoming very soon.

Yes, I should like to meet Mrs. Partner, and we want you to bring her over to the ball games next winter. Our first games are with the University of Texas on December 9 and 10, and we will have tickets for you. We want you to come down to the house after the games because we always have a bunch of fans meet there to chew the fat, eat popcorn, and drink plenty of soft drinks. We will be counting on you.
