Dear Doctor Allen -

Fred has asked if I would write you and get that prescription for "build-up" tonic, which you gave him in Chicago. He and Don Shields used it quite a bit in January, and found it very satisfactory. However, Fred gave the prescription to an uncle in St. Louis when he was there, and now it has been misplaced. Fred thinks he will need that tonic next week during the tournament and wonders if you will be kind enough to send the prescription to me.

Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma certainly tied things up in great style, didn't they? I am sort of torn between two fines, but I do wish you the best of luck tomorrow night in Wichita.

As you probably know, the tournament in Denver begins next Sunday. I do hope our boys are victorious this year. If wins mean anything in the League, they should win but one never can tell what may happen. I plan
