Prof. Phog Allen,

Dear Sir,

I am very anxious to get a story of the game between Kansas and Missouri universities, the year that Lon Silver, playing, I believe, as full back on the Kansas team, broke through the line and before the Missouri team woke up, he was sitting on the ball, between the goal posts. If my memory is not at fault, it was the year of the Yost undefeated team.

As the occasion is near for the use of the story, I would greatly appreciate a very early reply.

Yours truly,

F. W. Parrott
