Dear Doc:

I have your letter of April 27 and I am very glad to change our February 26 game here for you.

Of the alternative dates that you gave us we cannot play between January 5 and 12 as we are playing on the 6 and 8 and we are not permitted to play on the 11, 12 and 13 because of Religious Emphasis Week here. We are playing Missouri here on January 15 and go on a trip to play at Oklahoma, playing there on January 20 so we cannot work it in on this second alternative, the dates of January 12 and 18.

Your third set of alternative dates, February 12 and 20, are not very good because we are playing you at Lawrence on the 12, and Nebraska here on the 17 and Missouri there on the 22. You suggest as the 4 and 5 alternatives some date between March 1 and 8, or February 3. I would like to play you then, either February 3 (which you say you do not care for particularly) or Tuesday, March 5. You take your choice of either one of these dates. I have just a slight preference for the February 3 date, although either will be satisfactory. Will you let me know before you leave this week-end as I have already notified the officials on their assignments.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

L. E. Menze
