

THE GRADUATE DIVISION
OF
SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

(Corporate Name)
International Young Men's Christian Association College
Springfield, Massachusetts

Announces a limited number of Fellowships and Assistantships available for 1939-40 for one and two year appointments offering advanced study in:

HEALTH AND SAFETY EDUCATION

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

GROUP WORK EDUCATION

GENERAL EDUCATION: Advanced professional courses in education combined with academic subjects and organized to meet state certification requirements.

DEGREES: Master of Education; Master of Physical Education; Master of Humanics.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS: Half-time assistants receive from $300 to $600 a year. Quarter-time assistants receive from $150 to $300 a year. The number selected each year varies with the needs of the College and the number of qualified applicants. Graduate assistants are named on the basis of general proficiency as shown by the undergraduate record, special abilities with which the appointee can serve the College, and promise of a future career in the professional fields listed above. Service to the College includes the teaching of activity classes or equivalent research duties and usually two full years of study are necessary to meet the requirements for the Masters degree.

GRADUATE TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS: The fellowships are valued from $600 to $1200, the stipend determined by the training and experience of the Fellow and the services expected of him. Teaching fellows are appointed as occasion demands.

A CANDIDATE for the graduate division must hold a bachelors' degree with high scholastic rating from an accredited college or university. Academic achievement, personality, demonstrated social and religious ideals, leadership abilities, health and financial resources are considered in admitting candidates and appointing assistants in the Graduate Division.

Applications will be received from students who will complete their undergraduate work in June and should be accompanied by an official transcript from their college stating the courses of study, semester hours and grades. References, a photograph, and letters of recommendation should be filed with the application.
