Dear Phog:

I have your letter of April 6. I have discussed this matter with Paul Good and find that no one is embarrassed at all by the use of Paul's name or by the fact that they discovered that I was the writer of the letter. In fact, I have nothing to hide at all and would just as soon you had used my name on the letter, except that I did not want to get my friend, Paul Good, in any difficulty. There is no reason for you to come to Wichita to attempt to explain the matter at all, as I am sure everything is fine in its present status.

I do look forward with considerable interest to telling you of my conversation with this Oklahoma representative, and I am sure you will get as much enjoyment out of the report of the conversation as I did.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,
