

Their headlines at the time you were having your fuss with Oklahoma are not, in my opinion, friendly, to say the least, and I seriously considered organizing the K.U. alumni in a letter-writing attack on the Eagle. It is my opinion that no sports writer is secure enough in his job to stand much criticism, and when letters begin to roll in to the editors of the paper, they usually put a stop to any offside attitude on the part of the sports editor. Unless he gets in line, I am still in favor of doing something of this kind.

I will be happy to see you when you are in Wichita, and we will see what else we can find out.
