

THE "DREAM TEAM" OF TODAY

Something new in basketball will be introduced at the Chicago Stadium on the night of Friday, November 29, when the College All Stars face the Harlem Globe Trotters, world's professional champions. The contest, expected to become an annual affair, is sponsored by the Chicago Herald-American.

The 15 members of the All Stars, selected through a poll of 36 sports writers, will form the greatest galaxy of basketball talent ever assembled upon one team. All in all, here will be a "dream team" that every coach in the country would like to have at one time or another.

Those selected to perform in this rare stellar attraction, in the order of their selection, were:

Ralph Vaughn	Southern California	Forward	6-2	190
Bill Hapac	Illinois	Forward	6-4	188
Jim Rae	Michigan	Center	6-5	190
Chet Jaworski	R. I. State	Forward	5-10	165
Marvin Huffman	Indiana	Guard	6-2	185
Ralph Giannini	Santa Clara	Forward	6-2	175
Fred Beretta	Purdue	Guard	6	178
Stan Szukala	De Paul	Guard	6-2	175
Jim McNatt	Oklahoma	Forward	6	170
Bob Calihan	Detroit	Center	6-2	192
Ed Sadowski	Seton Hall	Forward	6-6½	196
*Mark Ertle	Notre Dame
Erwin Prasse	Iowa	Guard	6-2	195
Bob Carpenter	E. Texas Teachers	Forward	6-4	190
Bill McDonald	Marquette	Forward	6-3	191
Rex Ellis	Notre Dame	Center	6-4	185

*Couldn't perform; Ellis selected instead

A survey of the records set up by the 15 players to perform in this important game shows that, in their three years of college competition, they accounted for a total of 8,767 points in 610 games, or a net average of 14.7 points per player, per game. There are former captains, "most valuable", high scorers and stars who monopolized just about every kind of honor imaginable.

This Bulletin will be published for the next four months. It can be made only as interesting as the various coaches and readers make it. Do you know of any that basketball can be improved? Is there anything you especially like or dislike? Why now make this publication your forum? Is there any news item that you think coaches and sports writers in other parts of the country will appreciate reading? Send them in, for the editor will be more than glad to read it!
