

had reached us or not.

Cot was home all last week and we had such a grand visit. His Mine School at Yorktown Virginia was over and he has now been sent as Mines Operations Officer at Galveston Texas. This is a new office just created and should offer a wonderful opportunity for both work and his new knowledge of mines. Also we are happy as it is