

November 28, 1941.

Mr. Arthur B. Morse,
10 South LaSalle St.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Arthur:

Don Elser and Joe Rieff will be quite agreeable to us.

It was I who asked Bill Wendt to procure Craig, Clarno or Enright, but of course if they are busy then that is out.

I am sorry that I do not care for Sam Pecararo's officiating. I have nothing against him, but there are just some officials that I do not care to have. I will explain when I see you.

Don Elser worked two games for us with the University of Texas. He is a good official, fearless, and he does not chisel.

Thanking you for your cooperation and assuring you that we will ask for nothing that we would not want our opponents to have, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
