Perhaps the travel and expense element is too great, and too I do not want to be misunderstood - but would it ever be possible for officials, say from Chicago to work at Kansas, Missouri or Nebraska etc. Not that you do not have competent officials thruout your conference, (I've worked with them and know of their ability) but that some of our men might be glad to work in the Big Six, and there might be times when you could use men from this territory due to conflicts etc, in officials schedulers. Would appreciate your expression on this subject.

I'm sending you a bit of various interpretation bulletins for your perusal - there are some splendid clarifications in them - as well as the acute or strained hypothetical situations. They are designed primarily for High School games, but of course fit in with college code as well. Sincerely,

P.S. I haven't seen Johnny Glenn for quite some time - but I hear he is ok.

"Ike" Craig.
