

stands nine for Kansas and five for Oklahoma Aggies. This should answer pretty definitely some of the boys who are uninformed.

I will not go into what caused the cessation of play, but doubtless you may remember.

There is one other way, and maybe two, of making more points than the Aggies make when Kurland is in there. But why should I reveal those things when we might accidentally meet them?

You ask what happened to our mutual friend, Roy Bennett. He is at Parsons, Kansas. He was in the Ford business but when the munitions plant opened up there he got a very lucrative job, I am told. I have seen him from time to time, and he and Mrs. Bennett are very happy.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
