

November 10, 1942.

Mr. Dick O'Neil,
Box 66,
Oil Center, New Mexico.

Dear Dick:

I acknowledge your letter of November 1, and am sorry that I have delayed in getting the information to you. Roland Logan is at the Naval Pre-Flight School, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C. He is the trainer for Jim Crowley's pre-flight football team.

I have had a number of letters from boys asking the same information that you are asking and I have been unable to give them any information. However, Murray Brown, who assisted me as freshman coach last year, a graduate of Warrensburg Teachers College, and now coach at the Topeka High School, was down last night and told me that he had a chance to get into the physical education set-up. I did not get a chance to talk to him about that matter as he left soon thereafter, but I have written him asking that he write you directly and give you the information. His address is 1423 West 10th Street, Topeka, Kansas. If you do not hear from him right away I suggest that you write to him. If I can help you in any way I will be glad to do it.

Dick, I am reminded of your letter of February 14, 1941, written from Hobbs, New Mexico, in which you mention that you had not forgotten the $45.00 that you owed me and that you thought perhaps you could send it within the next two months after you wrote the letter. I am sure that you know I would appreciate an effort on your part to liquidate at least a part of this indebtedness. I have raised a family and I can appreciate the situation that a man with a family has. At the same time, a creditor always appreciates it more when he receives some payment on a loan. I loaned you this money, of course, out of my own pocket to help you defray your expense of staying in school, and I would appreciate a workable reciprocity from you.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
