Dear Doctor:

Congratulations to you and that great basketball team. I saw the game Saturday night and darn near passed out--I know I'll never see another game as good as that one. I tried to get down to the floor afterwards, but there was such a mob I couldn't get through. I'll be pulling for you Saturday night and I know that the Jayhawks will come through on the long end of the score. Congratulations again and good luck Saturday.

Sincerely,

Link Owen
