

April 12, 1940.

Mr. Burt Ober,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Burt:

It was very nice of you to write me as you did in your communication of April 10th. I am very happy that we had such a fine meeting, and I felt that the majority of the people thought the meeting was worth while. If it cleared away misunderstandings and brought friendships a little closer to each other, then I know it was very much worth while. Thank you for your continued good wishes.

I expect to drop in occasionally and make some selections.

Very sincerely yours,
