

October 12, 1939.

Mr. J. E. Kissell,
Portis, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Kissell:

Thanks for your letter of the 9th instant. I was glad indeed that you wrote me, and will be guided by the contents of your letter.

Mr. Paschal has written me and sent me the program for the day. I shall leave Lawrence early Saturday morning, and expect to reach Osborne some time before noon. Mrs. Allen is accompanying me.

Looking forward to seeing you and Max, I am

Very sincerely yours,
